This feast, originally Corpus Christi, arose in the 13th century Belgium in response to debates about the real presence and as a result of an upsurge in eucharistic piety. Its extension to the entire Western Church was first decreed by Pope Urban 1V in 1264.

The feast celebrates the mystery of the nourishing and enduring presence of the body and blood of Christ in the Eucharist. This feast was renamed in 1970-The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.
